Look at me
Dried eyes of sorrow
Walls are closing in, too much this time
Can't handle
The things you're making me believe
May I
We're dancing in the shadows of our laughings for the last time,
Tonight.

Please don't wake, please don't wake,
Please don't make me ashamed again
Please don't wake, please don't wake
You don't understand

We're gone for the last time
This were wrong all along
It's a feeling you can't express
Tell what's behind your stupid lies
Then in the end
Things could be allright

Please don't wake, please don't wake,
Please don't make me ashamed again
Please don't wake, please don't wake
Please don't make me the same again
You don't understand

Faded feeling from yesterday
Keep going round in my head
Wishings you were not aware of Feeling you thought you took care of.
