(Justin Hayward)
My brother
If you could cast a little light on someone it's not too soon
you took me halfway round the world I'm running out of time and reasons
My true friend
if you could tell me what it is that keeps you from coming down
you left me way up in the clouds the higher you fly
the less I see you
So far
cross a wild and windy sea
so far
that our voices are divided by an ocean an ocean
My brother
if you could take a little time to slow down it's more your style it takes a lifetime to decide I'm running out of time and reasons
I'm running out
I'm running out
So far
so far
that our voices are divided by an ocean
an ocean
Ahhhh...
Oooooo...
