(Justin Hayward, John Lodge)

You don't need to ask me if I'll be your friend

I am

I am

You don't need to ask me if I'm sure my friend

I am

I am your friend

you must remember me

I'm the one who saw through the world's disguise took away its cloak and I made it hide from me

remember me?

Walking on this earth finding you

you, you

walking on this earth finding you

you, you

what can I say

you don't need to find the words to say what's on your

mind

If you need a reason to begin again

I am

I am

you will find an answer at your journey's end

I am

waiting there my friend

you must remember me

I'm the one who knew you when

I'm the one you call your friend feel free

remember me

you, you

walking on this earth finding you

you, you

what can I say

you don't need to find the words to say what's on your

mind

you, you

walking on this earth finding you

you, you

what can I say

mind
you, you
walking on this earth finding you
you, you
you, you
you, you
you, you
you, you
