I'm an orange moon
I'm an orange moon
Reflecting the light of the sun

Many nights he was alone
Many, many, many nights
His light was so bright so they turned away
And he stood alone
Every night and every day

Then he turned to me
He saw his reflection in me
And he smiled at me when he turned to me
Then he said to me

How good it is, how good it is
How good it is, how good it is

I'm an orange moon
I'm brighter than before
Brighter than ever before
I'm an orange moon and I shine so bright
'Cause I reflect the light of my sun

I praise the day, he turned my way
And smiled at me
He gets to smile and I get to be orange

That I love to be

How good it is, how good it is
How good it is, how good it is
How good it is, how good it is
How good it is, how good it is

Shine so bright
He ruled the day, I ruled the night
Shine, shine, shine

How good it is, how good it is
How good it is, how good it is
How good it is, how good it is

How good he is, how God is

How good it is, how good it is
How good it is, how God is
How good it is, how good it is
How good it is, how God is
How good it is, how good it is

I'm an orange moon
I'm brighter than before, brighter
Reflecting the light of the sun
Smile at me
