Some things will never change
Some things we'll never know
Walking down the rocky road
Down and out with so far to go

Without you on my mind
I'd never make it
Without the stars in the sky

Well love is love and one is one so I turn around to head for the sun
And now I'm on my way

Without any hope, without you on my mind
Without any dreams, without the stars in the sky
Without any love there's nothing at all
So I'm on my way home and I'm walking, walking through walls

Some days just never end
Some days go to slow
Walking down the rocky road
Down and out with so far to go

Without you on my mind
I'd never make it
Without the stars in the sky

Well love is love and I lost the fight
So I turn around and head for the light
And now I'm on my way

Without any hope, without you on my mind
Without any dreams, without the stars in the sky
Without any love there's nothing at all
So I'm on my way home and I'm walking, walking
through walls
I'm walking through walls

Without any hope, without you on my mind
Without any dreams, without the stars in the sky
Without any love there's nothing at all

So I'm on my way home and I'm walking, walking
through walls

Without you on my mind
I'm walking through walls
Without the stars in the sky
I'm walking through walls

Without you on my mind
I'm walking through walls
Without the stars in the sky
I'm walking through walls

Without you on my mind
I'm walking through walls
