You said you wanna go, so lets go far
You said you needed hope, well hope is all I've got You claim you always knew, exactly what's in store for us
But I will see this through, from me to you

Listen up, we can't turn back now
Baby this is how we live, living like were outlaws
The cities skyline never felt so full
Bending the rules never felt so cool

You try to hide behind, the mask you've drawn so favorably
Well isn't it obvious, your eyes will never deceive me
You claim you always knew, exactly what's in store for us
But I will see this through, from me to you

Listen up, we can't turn back now
Baby this is how we live, living like were outlaws
The cities skyline never felt so full
Bending the rules never felt so cool

Listen up, we can't turn back now
Baby this is how we live, living like were outlaws
Take a drag from this one last cigarette
Lets return the time when we first met

Time is turning
Slow down so you can find your way
And when your ready
Together we can find our place

The moon is slipping into the night sky
It's fading away, baby please don't cry
I'll hold you close, forgive the memories
And make our way back to you and me

Listen up we can't turn back now
Baby this is how we live, living like were outlaws
The cities skyline never felt so full
Bending the rules never felt so cool

Listen up, we can't turn back now
Baby this is how we live, living like were outlaws
Take a drag from this one last cigarette
Lets return the time when we first met
