Why do we keep repeating
What we know is unhealthy
My body aches without you
Addicted to you like a drug

My hands are always shaking, with you I'm terrified
The thought of me without you, it's got me horrified
'Cause only being accused while living in this lie
Never satisfied

Chemical love! I can feel you in my bones
Chemical love! Can you feel me in your soul
Nothing you can do to save me, I am on my own

This situation's clockwork
Always rising up from the dirt
Only to repeat disaster
Addicted to the way we hurt

Can't breathe for the life of me, I'm drowning in your eyes
I must be under a spell, you've got me hypnotized
Constantly running away but there's nowhere to hide
Always on my mind

Chemical love! I can feel you in my bones
Chemical love! Can you feel me in your soul
Nothing you can do to save me, I am on my own

Chemical love! I can feel you in my bones
Chemical love! Can you feel me in your soul
Nothing you can do to save me, I am on my own

Chemical love
Chemical love
Chemical love
Chemical love

Chemical love
