Verse:

you say hey
and i say no way
you say hi
i say bye
i close my eyes
But there still open
i cant get these pictures out my head everything you said
wont fade away
and this is all i got to say

Chorus

Simply Simple
not rocket science
tell me you love me dont make me wait too long but you did
its done
no more
why is the world so shy?
all thats left is goodbye Goodbye

Verse:

Relate to love
relate to life
relate to show the world and know what you believe

share the dream
share the moment
if you like me
show it
why is the world so shy?

Chorus

Breakdown:

Love is just a word
until someone comes around and gives it a definition oh

love is indefinite
for me

Chorus

Outro:
(whisper)
your kinda
sorta
maybe sometimes always on my mind
