It seem that you've said everything that you needed to...

Cause it's been such a long time since I've heard from you

And the summer's gone and so are you

Thank God the sweet end is here at last
And we're both happy Thank God it all worked it'self out Before we crashed and burned

It seem that you've done everything to turn my name to dirt Cause everything you've said about me was said to hurt

And i just watched you move away without a fight
And no I don't hate your guts but got every ride
