Your promises are empty
Don't baffle me with lies
You know I'll see right through you
You've got that look in your eyes

And your selfishness will get the best of you
And you don't even realize
That it's wrong

Don't even try to play me for a fool this time
Cause I won't let you walk all over me
You're in for a surprise if you think I'll let you get to me
Cause I know your games all the well my dear
And I've grown up to see things much more clear

Make someone else your marter
I'm not an easy sway
I won't bend that way

Don't promise me the world when you know you can't deliver
Your lies are getting old and they've become much bigger

Wiser is the one who never let's his guard down

And hopefully with time, these wounds will heal
And you can make up for all of your mistakes
Until that happens, I won't let my guard down
