Uh oh, I had no idea she'd be here tonight
Lets go we should bail before she tries to start a fight
And we swore we'd never let it get this way
No more this is going to end today

Regret seems to be the reoccurring theme
Wanna forget and pretend you were just a bad dream
Don't try to make your exit before I say my goodbyes so you'll never forget this day!

This pain is real unlike you
You were always such a fake
If I could give it all back, I'd give it all back
You were always such a mistake
This pain is real unlike you
You were always such a fake
If I could go back to the day I never knew you
You were always such a mistake

Here's your stuff, there's the door
He's waiting for you
Save your tears, there not real
I saw right through you from the start

So you can have our year
But I'll take back my heart

This pain is real unlike you
You were always such a fake
If I could give it all back, I'd give it all back
You were always such a mistake
This pain is real unlike you
You were always such a fake
If I could go back to the day I never knew you
You were always such a mistake

Keep your apologies
(All I hear is noise)
While your falling apart
(I'll maintain my poise)
I know you miss me

This pain is real unlike you
You were always such a fake
If I could give it all back, I'd give it all back
You were always such a mistake
This pain is real unlike you
You were always such a fake
If I could go back to the day I never knew you
You were always such a mistake
