And I've been waking up angry
It's gotta stop
All this childhood behaviour
And I know it seems hard
To be around
Like the son who was born to save me

Like a blanket of smoke
That is blown by the breeze
Like a morning snap shot of two people
On their way to the beach

And I know it seems hard
To be around
But I know it's gonna change
When the baby comes out
The headache starts when I try to stop
But I try once again cause I love you a lot
It's just childhood behaviour

And I've been waking up early
A lot
Like the whole world's in danger
And if I stay up
Too late
I look just like a tired stranger
Like a mouthful of smoke
That is blown through the trees
Like a morning snap shot of two people
With their face to the breeze

And I know it seems hard
To be around
But I know it's gonna change
When the baby comes out
The headaches start when I try to stop
But I try once again cause I love you a lot
It's just childhood behaviour

Like a mountain of smoke
I will crumble to the sea
Like a soldier coming home

I will fall to my knees
And I know it seems hard
To be around
But I know it's gonna change
When the baby comes out
The headaches start when I try to stop
But I try once again cause I love you a lot
It's just childhood behaviour
