All the time I took to make it here,
you're so unkind
Everyone chose to let us in the back door Chose to let us in

It's a crazy chord;
they call it "B"
If you play it you will see
you write a song just like me

All the words I chose to write them down in this book yes I know I only get around to reading it
I only get around

It's a crazy chord;
they call it "B"
If you play it you will see

you write a song just like me

oh We've come to far We've come to far
We've come to far
We've come to far

It's a crazy chord;
they call it "B"
If you play it you will see
you write a song just like me
Write a song just like me
