Love is a drug
But the drug won't take me higher
Love is a drug
But the drug won't take me higher
We cry again, fighting with the backs on wall
While our blood's on fire
Love is a drug
But you still can't fool desire
But I'm trying
We lost total control
We lost total control

Love is a drug
But the drug won't take me higher
Take what you want
But you still can't fool desire
We lost total control
We lost total control
Love is a drug
But the drug won't take me higher

Walking with a rise to the sky in the , wire
Fight like a flame and ,till your heart's on fire
We trying
Just won't , won't replace everything you want
Shoots up the driver's arm till you hit the floor
Now we dying
We lost total control
We lost total control

Love is a drug
But the drug won't take me higher
Take what you want
But you still can't fool desire
We lost total control
We lost total control
Love is a drug
But the drug won't take me higher

Fight like a flame and ,till your heart's on fire
We lost total control

We lost total control

Love is a drug
But the drug won't take me higher
Take what you want
But you still can't fool desire
We lost total control
We lost total control
Love is a drug
But the drug won't take me higher
I said that
Love is a drug
But the drug won't take me higher
Yes love is a drug
But the drug won't take me higher.
