Along came this band, they were pretty and blue
They made a record or two, and then they sold a few
But some people tried, to put 'em down in words
But little did they know
Those words can't hurt, me, no

Refrain:

You've never seen your own inside
That's why you can't understand me
Should be afraid of your own pride
Cause for your love it'll be deadly

Along came this man, not the charming kind

This business made him blind, and love was hard to find
So then he tried, to put us down in words
But little did he know
Those words can't hurt, me, no

Refrain

It's all right, yes I know, what it's like
We've all been there, so scared
But let's turn it around right now
No more fear, just be you, it's enough
Go your own way, the path of your heart

Refrain
