"Heads Of The Gods"

The heads of the gods will roll whatever you choose to believe and then your faith will turn cold cause somewhere you missed to receive

And signs have been planted, all along your path but no You've been staring with your blind eye at them when the spell is broken, your chocked and you don't understand (and) you decide to find a safe place againâ€¦

The heads of the gods will roll
the second you notice a stain In the picture, divine, that you hold no matter how much I explain

You can never let me down....oh but I will
You must keep me safe and sound...oh but I wont
You can never let me down....oh but I will
You must keep me safe and sound...oh but I wont

And the heads of the gods will rollâ€¦
