It's the most beautiful thing I think I've ever seen A homeless child playing with something as simple as a cardboard box and he seems so happy with that smile on his face like nothing matters he's so serene when he doesn't even know if he's gonna live through another day worrying about what he's gonna eat when I look at that it kinda makes me feel guilty cause the world that I'm living in only seems to care about having enough money to buy luxurious things that we don't even need I'm not trying to be the good girl to save the world cause I do the same damn thing

(Chorus)

isn't it a shame, but we only have ourselves to blame but love is the most beautiful thing but its a lost somewhere along the way to money and fame (to money and fame) Isn't the world a crazy place we were all brought up with different dreams and beliefs but the one thing we all need is to be loved by friends and family and when a child like that with no parents around is able to smile makes me feel very weak, small, and vulnerable makes me conscience, of all the things i have makes me realize that I am blessed it makes me wanna be a better person and follow my dreams and maybe one day I'll be able to make a change

(chorus)

fame (to money and fame), isn't the world a crazy place mmmmmmm, yeahhhh, mmmmm, ohhh, ohhh, ohhh

isn't it a shame, but we only have ourselves to blame
fame
isn't the world a crazy place isn't it a shame ourselves to blame a beautiful thing...to money and fame isn't the world a crazy place, a crazy place, crazy place(
