You just walked in to the quiet quiet after the stars, yes
It's such... silent, and you sense that something's wrong

Hmmm something's surely wrong!

And you saw the letter, the keys laying on the counter
But you know just what it means, and grab the phone to call her.

Now is this another awful good threat

She made cool jokes, or she made good these threats to finally leave you

Tears roll up in your eyes which you... won't let you cry, and finally

Chorus:

She's gone, bye, bye so long

Let her

She's gone, bye bye so long!

Love goes on!

Apartment stripped in silence

Still you hear each... make up

And all those crazy ways you forgive each time she loved you

Now that you're all alone

You realize she filled your life with litter

Her kisses used to thrill

Now the after taste is bitter

With the memories from the mess you've endured when...

Chorus:

She's gone, bye, bye so long

Let her

She's gone, bye bye so long!

Love goes on!
