

Essence Of Existence "Variations Of Agony"

It's a long route towards the end, you cannot turn, there's no use to die today They throw thyself back to sublife of your blood is on they own hands
You are captured here on gaia Just in a few dimensions by false gods made by yourselves
They tear they soul apart mutate thy flesh by the dust of fallen fear Metamorphosis they mind and transfer it to a lethal realm
Virtual illusions of life, memories taken away Fear comes from dreams suffer in painful tortures - variations of agony

Millenniums are awaiting thee, descendants of stellar travelers
Seek in thy past - for the keys to the future of humanity Break the circle of ephemeral half-life Find stolen sences of your body And incomplete perception of unknown around thee shall come to an end
"I wish I could only know is this life or final death.
I hope I shall find at least is this the start or the end."
