

Essence Of Sorrow

"Hollow"

Empty hollow shells human fragile minds
An endless echo swells
Faded memories clueless state of minds
Staring from the inside out

The confusion so overwhelming
Slicing through your mind and soul

Hate and love intertwined without boundaries
Venomous tongues, hollow eyes
Lies and death where has this world gone, just empty
Shells

Cold as ice, staring blindly into oblivion
Give strength to this weary soul, helpless kneeling in

Pain

The serpents tormenting your flesh
Draining the life out of you

Hate and love intertwined without boundaries
Venomous tongues, hollow eyes
Lies and death where has this world gone, just empty
Shells

Hate and love intertwined without boundaries
Venomous tongues, hollow eyes
Lies and death where has this world gone, just empty
Shells
