

Essence Of Sorrow

A pale light burns
My staring eyes
Transcending time
I'm inside a new dimension
All the darkness that dwells
Love seems out of reach
Pain keeps finding the sinner

The final harvest of weak
Hard to see behind the curtains

Don't let me loose my way,

Don't let me fall again
My mind is under control
My soul is under subjection
I'm crying out in pain, I'm condemned to die
As I look through the ashes
For someone to blame
Don't let me loose my way,
Don't let me fall again
