Wonder why, wonder why, wonder why
Why must we pretend?
Why can't we be more than friends?
Let's be more than friends

What are you afraid of?
We've been playing games love
Together we crazy, good I mean, baby
So why you gotta change up?

Baby when we make love
In ways I never made love
Feels so real but something still
Is missing from the picture

Everywhere I go, people wanna know
Wonder where I been, what's the deal wit him
Is y'all really cool, is he just a friend?
Now I'm asking you, tell me what it is?

Look me in my eye, you don't have to lie
Must think I'm a fool, fucking round with you
Need to give me proof, I need to hear the truth
I just got one question for you

Wonder why, wonder why, wonder why
Why must we pretend?
Why can't we be more than friends?
Let's be more than friends

Wonder why, wonder why, wonder why
Why must we pretend?
Why can't we be more than friends?
Let's be more than friends

I think you see me as your plaything
Your Friday to Sunday thing
I'm not your weekend love, your secret fuck
Brother, I'm not playing

And if I wanted to be part time
I'd be working at the check out line

At the liquor store, the picture show
Let me give you piece of my mind

Why don't you put your arms around me, huh?
Acting different when your friends around
See nah, when we together we fire
And no I never tell my friends you're a friend
You're my guy we're together, uh huh

Calling my phone about we needed a break
How we gonna break up when we ain't been on a date?
You say you want that real woman when you get her you run
How come I never met the family like your dad and your mum?

And I don't wanna hear it, stop being a bitch
You making me respect you less, I'm really starting to switch
You're saying that and this and you're heart broken
Yeah, you sound like shit like you're taking a piss

Somebody wanna see you chick, you see the problem with this is
I'm waiting in vain, I'm waiting for you to change
We ain't kicking it, no we ain't chilling
No, we ain't doing a thing blood, I'm more like a full time thing

See fam you got your own sock drawer, you can call me much more
More then just your friend much, more than before
Don't play me like an extra, I got speaking roles
I am not that ho, I am so much more
I wonder why

Wonder why, wonder why, wonder why
Why must we pretend?
Why can't we be more than friends?
Let's be more than friends

Wonder why, wonder why, wonder why
Why must we pretend?
Why can't we be more than friends?
Let's be more than friends

Don't act like I'm tryna press you, it's just you know
Like it's, it's obvious, it's all there like
What you waiting for?

Why can't we be more than friends?

Let's be more than friends
Let's be more than friends
Let's be more than friends

Why can't we be more than friends?
Let's be more than friends
Let's be more than friends
Let's be more than friends

Why can't we be more than friends?
Let's be more than friends
Let's be more than friends
Let's be more than friends

Why can't we be more than friends?
Let's be more than friends

I think you see me as your plaything
Your Friday to Sunday thing
I'm not your weekend love, your secret fuck
Brother, I'm not playing

If I wanted to be part time
I'd be working at the check out line
At the liquor store, the picture show
Let me give you piece of my mind
Let me give you piece of my mind
