we bombed again today and i'm so happy pulled another plug yeah i'm so happy wrote you in the headline mud you're so happy yeah i'm so happy ain't gonna let you bring me down to the ground and bury me to my knees pissed in a cup for minimum wage you're so happy stuffed you back inside your cage you're so happy pull you back at your age you're so happy yeah i'm so happy ain't gonna let you bring me down to the ground and bury me to my knees i'm treading on sunshine i'm treading all the time i'm so terrified they only said the same things that make me happy said to be afraid of all that makes us happy and they bombed again today and i'm so happy yeah i'm so happy ain't gonna let them bring me down to the ground and bury me to my knees
