( John Forte feat. Esthero )

John Forte:

I often pondered and I asked her how well she knew me
I turned to ask her that and she looked right through me
The nerve you have to ask me that is all she softly breathed
I kissed her hands and held them tight as we fell back to sleep

How how could I
In all reality imagine a life without you
How how could I
Ever put into simple words what you amount to

Esthero:

I read my horoscope just for fun
And apparently I'm having doubts about us
I laughed it off and put the water on for the tea
And I knew when you arose that this was where I ought to be

How how could I
In all reality imagine a world without you
How how could I
Ever put into simple words what you amount to

John Forte:

I watched the greyest skies suddenly turn blue
Like you and me I've wondered if I deserved you
My thoughts maybe easily seen by me
How could someone so lovely love unconditionally

How how could I
In all reality imagine life without you
How how could I
Ever put into simple words what you amount to

Esthero:

Lets put the world aside there's nothing left to say

Together we grow stronger even more than yesterday
I'll take you next to me above anything and all
All will make sense if we listen to our hearts

How how could I
In all reality imagine a world without you
How how could I
Ever put into simple words what you amount to

John Forte & Esthero:
Let's pretend that we're not afraid to strengthen what we got
Will you consider the possibilities of spending the rest your life with me
I do I do I do

How how could I
In all reality imagine life without you
How how could I
Ever put into simple words what you amount to

How how could I
In all reality imagine life without you
How how could I
Ever put into simple words what you amount to

I do I do I do...
