I am the last of the worshippers, I am the last of my kind
I am the last of the followers, I have found my peace of mind

Indigo boy, my little indigo boy
(what have they done to you)
What have they done to you
(did they take the milk right from your mouth)
Did they take the milk right from your mouth

We'll he's stealing your ball, my little indigo boy
Don't let them take it away, everyday
How, how can you take the words that way, they ask you
(they told him not to come, they take him away)
How can you take him away, will he learn to fall, yeah
(they told him that they needed you to stay)

I could be I could be I could be what you want me to be (Take me to the one)
I could be lost baby, will I fall away
(will you learn to fall)

Indigo boy, my little indigo boy
(what have they done to you)
What have they done to you
(did they take the milk right from your mouth)
Did they take the milk right from your mouth

We'll he's stealing your ball, my little indigo boy
(it's your ball)
Don't let them take it away
(take it away, you need it everyday)

Indigo boy, my little indigo boy
(what have they done to you)
What have they done to you
(did they take the milk right from your mouth)
Did they take the milk right from your mouth

We'll he's stealing your ball, my little indigo boy

Don't let them take it away
(you need that shit everyday, everyday, everyday)

(when i fall away... you'll look good at the edges)
