I can make you want me
I can make you think you need me too
I can reassure you that all the lies
You tell yourself are true

If you won't let me go
I'm just harder to hold, no
I'll never let you gain control
No, no, no, no, yeah

I'm not myself, lately
I'm not even sure, I know me
But I'm worth more than my name
And all the lies I tell myself are true

You can try but it's never enough
You are behind me
When push comes to shove, I fall
And it's my turn to handle myself now

If you won't let me go
I'm just harder to hold, no
I'll never let you gain control
And you can say you want me

And if you won't let me go
I'm just harder to hold, no
I'll never let you gain control
No, no, no, no
