Well it looks like
They're running on time
And you can taste in my tears
That I love you
And then tell me goodbye
So kiss me again
'Cause airports ain't nothing
But places you cry
The ain't nothing but places to cry

And this bartender's selling a lie
That all of these travelers are buying
But bars they ain't nothing
'Cause everyone's looking
For something to find
They ain't nothing but places you hide

But places you hide
Places do nothing
Now I'm stuck in this airport
But take me away from your side
To the place that you helped me to find
And trying to get back
'Cause airports are places

I am when I'm not by your side
This city is covered in lights
And everyone's out for the evening
But no one here cares
If you're dead or alive
I guess cities ain't nothing

But places to fly
They ain't nothing but places to fly

Places do nothing
But take me away from your side
Now I'm stuck in this city
And trying to get back
To the place that you helped me to find
'Cause cities are places
I am when I'm not by your side

Yeah places are places
I am when I'm not where you are

Solo

We made love in an ocean of color
But when I awoke
Well I dreamt that I held you tonight
I guess dreams ain't nothing
You were nowhere in sight
But places inside
They ain't nothing but places inside
But take me away from your side
And all that I want

And places do nothing
To the place that you helped me to find
Is to try and get back
And back to the place I belong
Which is right by your side
