Life is hitting me every day
All kind of suffer, real pains
My friends didn't come here to stay
The sun is not shining this day
My friends didn't come here to stay
And I stay quiet watching them
I wish you can help me to stop
The terrible acts of this world

Let's start the sunrise together!!!

Life is hitting me every day
All kind of suffer, real pains
My friends didn't come here to stay
The sun is not shining this day
When I see them crying on their beds
And I think there's no time to help them
But you know, there's a little time
I know you'll help me!!!

Let's start the sunrise together!!!
