And still you don't see
The demise the suffering
Death drawing us near
Our doom fueled by your fear
I see the devil in the eyes of god
Feel his flesh against your burning skin
Wallow in your pity, filth and sin
Can't you see that all hope is lost
We exist in a godless world
Mankind consumes itself
We're tearing a our own flesh
Commemorate the misery
I see the devil in the eyes of god
Feel his flesh against your burning skin
Wallow in your pity, filth and sin
Can't you see that all hope is lost
'And still you don't see the demise the suffering
Death drawing us near our doom fueled by your fear
We exist in a godless world mankind consumes itself We're tearing a our own flesh commemorate the misery...'
