The fleeting hours fall away
Conscience calling, but still it fades
Like ships in the night that drift away
I know you're out there, but still you fade

Who has been left behind?
And who has changed?
I'm not the same any more
Who has been lifted up?
And who has fallen down?
Nothing's everlasting

Ghosts and shadows roam my mind
Fading features, lost in time
Warmth surrounds me colours dance
I long to see a fleeting glance, to set me free

Who has been left behind?
And who has changed?
I'm not the same any more
Who has been lifted up?
And who has fallen down?
Nothing's everlasting

Everlasting
Everlasting

Who has been left behind?
And who has changed?
I'm not the same any more
Who has been lifted up?
And who has fallen down?
Nothing's everlasting
