The potion faints my view
As my mental journey begins
To places I once knew
They deliver my astral remains
My long winging flight through the void
I have to cross the universe of light
To claim what was, is and will be mine
Infinite quest through endless time
Recreated by the thoughts
Caught in the Trapezoid
Send me through the Abyssos of radiance
Oh feaster from the stars!
I am the fulfiller
Oh prophecy of BA'AL
Come speak to me in ancient tongue
Answer the elder's call
All my life, all my love
All my soul, all myself
I will give to you
There is a light at the end of the tunnel
But our way leads into the dark
The time will be easy to know
For all the stars must stand in a row
To open the passages beyond time and space
Hail the arrival of the coming race
Resurrected by the souls
Trapped in the Trapezoid
I was sent through the Abyssos of radiance
Oh feaster from the stars!
