Night bleeds into the day
Don't know when I'll close my eyes
Feel that I've lost my pace
As I'm swallowed by the light

But if you call my name
I'll no longer fall...

Faithless I face the days
Hollow inside, but I'm not the only one
Broken I pick up pieces
Hollow inside, but I'm not the only one

Faces that seem the same
All blend into the night
Trying to find my place
With only moments on my side

But if you call my name
I'll no longer fall...

Faithless I face the days
Hollow inside, but I'm not the only one
Broken I pick up pieces
Hollow inside, but I'm not the only one

Raise my eyes into the morning light
And I know I'll be there soon
Remembrance of another life
And I know I'll be with you

Faithless I face the days
Hollow inside, but I'm not the only one
Broken I pick up pieces
Hollow inside, but I'm not the only one

Hollow inside, but I'm not the only one
Hollow inside, but I'm not the only one
