No more lonely nights I'm with you
And I'm holding you tight
The wasted nights you sat and dreamed of her
'Coz she ain't coming back
When your days and nights get colder
You can think of me, you can imagine what's right
'Coz I'll be the only one
'Coz baby this love could be right

It might as well be me
To take all the hurt and pain inside
It might as well be me
Let the sound of my voice soothe you inside
Oh it might as well, might as well be me
Me

Love can feel so wrong I wanna tell you
Stop living a lie
She only used you and abused you
Just keep up a heart, don't fight it
Please don't take my love for granted
You can hold me in your arms tonight
And I'll be the only one
'Coz I'll make you see, that this love is right
It might as well be me
To take all the hurt and pain inside
It might as well be me
Let the sound of my voice soothe you inside
Oh it might as well, might as well be me

(Please stop)
Please stop looking for love
(Looking for love)
No matter where you go, I'll be there
(I'll be right there)
Our love can reach higher, higher than a mountain
(Higher than a mountain)
Don't let my love pass you by
My sweet love don't say goodbye

It might as well be me
To take all the hurt, to take all the pain

(It might as well be me)
It might as well, might as well, might as well be me
Oh, it might as well, might as well be me
Yeah, be me
