Through the mist I call
Like a shadow I descend
With raven wings I devour
Caressing the night in bitter moonlight
I call to thee, the eternal...
Lost in sweet oblivion
Can't find your way home
Wait for your deliverance
A place to rest your soul
Taste my cold deceit
Burn in my flames eternal
I cover you in my misery
Forlorn you'll never see the light
I call to thee, the eternal...
Lost in sweet oblivion
Restless is your soul
Lord of your demise
In this limbo you'll eternally roam
Forever you will roam
In this suffering I revel in your torment
In this suffering you'll learn to let your self go...
I call to thee, the eternal...
