"The Sombre Light Of Isolation"

Enter the depths of your anguished dreams
I await you, the silent, the divine
Set my mind adrift with a glance
Endless is the isolation... I await you
Shadows dance in endless sympathy
To the light of treacherous souls
Feel the ravens as they tear your flesh
In this sombre light, awaken, arise...
Awaken, arise... awaken, arise...
Endless is this pain
Silent are your lonely cries
No one sees your silent glance
Lost in emptiness
Emptiness...
Renounce your flesh with awakened desire
See the reflection of your withered soul
I await you in this endless trance
In this sombre light, awaken, arise...
Awaken, arise... awaken, arise...
Endless is this pain
Silent are your lonely cries
No one sees your silent glance
Lost in emptiness, silent is your pain
Enter the depths of your anguished dreams
I await you, the silent, the divine
Set my mind adrift with a glance
Endless is the isolation... I await you
Endless is this pain
Silent are your lonely cries
Waiting for eternity
Endless is this isolation
