Wrongs, the things I have done - sins in the process of creation
Sinking my own thought inside - in a pool of UNrestless darkness
Condemned to never know - if the death I inflicted on others
Should be the same judgment solving my own life

Increasing pain I seek no forgiveness
My death will be as all
Killing my soul slowly the mind sees to exist
Chained, nailed
STRAPPED BY MY SKIN

This feeling of remorse - this sickening vain inside
Never resting - until I die
I found the evil in me-the evil that's inside my soul
No longer shall I resist-keeping my soul inside

Increasing pain, I seek no forgiveness...

Inflicting pain
Discovered my true meaning in life
All souls will be redeemed
When my mind sees to exist

[Solo: Dory]

[Solo: Eyal]

All souls will be redeemed
When... my mind sees to exist

Increasing pain, I seek no forgiveness...
