"When Hope Prevails"

Embracing this with arms open wide,
Why stay when you can run with shadows,
Remove the doubt plagued in your mind,
Search yourself look up and ask why,
Do you still want to live forever,

The sequenced breath we shared, is no more

With no faith left in our hearts,
There is no hope left in ourselves

Forcing my eyes to stay closed,
Tonight, there is still hope left in my dreams,
Awoken and reduced to nothing, once again,
Begging for sleep, as I lose, an ounce of hope, each day,
An ounce of regret,

I'm not swimming, I'm sinking, I am floating away,
Finding something to compell me to stay,
No hope for tomorrow, I was happy with today,

RISE TO THE SURFACE, FOR A CHANCE TO BREATHE AGAIN, A CHANCE TO LIVE AGAIN.
