

Eternal Tears Of Sorrow "Tears Of Autumn Rain"

It's autumn night,
The pale moon reveals my emptiness,
And my hollow wrath and fear inside

I close my eyes,
To sense her nightly lust once again,
But my rage and thirst won't fade away

Let me feel your pain,
Tears of autumn rain,
Words of blood on the shore,
"There is light no more"

Freezing gale of the night

Silenced the stream of life
Lay us down to sleep
On the crimson leaves

The nightly mist,
The scent of autumn in my heart,
I can hear the winter's song again

My will of life,
Falls away like golden leaves,
I'm just a flame who dies in shades
