When she walked in the room I was drawn
Like a fool almost hypnotised
You made my heart beat, baby, like never before
Underneath her disguise I saw trouble and lies
But I walked right in
She said tonight I'm gonna make you push it
And that's the score

I don't want her, don't need her
I'll just take what I want in the morning
I'll leave her
But she took me, she shook me now I'm Under her spell and there's no getting over
The black-hearted woman

Now to her it's a game trading passion for pain
And there's no way out
She's gonna use and abuse, take your body
Control your life
Like a demon possessed she put me to the test
Only just survived she said tonight I'm gonna make You use it like never before

Don't want her, don't need her
I'll just take what I want in the morning
I'll leave her
But she took me, she shook me and now I'm under Her spell and there's no getting over the black-hearted
woman

She's a filthy girl-dressed in black
Walk them heels up and down your back
Chain you up, pure desire
Gonna set your soul on fire

When she walked in the room, I was drawn like a fool
I was hypnotised
She made my heart beat, baby, like never before
Underneath her disguise I saw trouble and lies
But I walked right in
She said tonight I'm gonna make you push
It like never before

Don't want her, don't need her
I'll just take what I want in the morning
I'll leave her
But she took me, she shook me and now I'm under
Her spell and there's no getting over the black-hearted
woman
