"Estranged From The Womb"

Released into a world of corruption
Your journey begins on a road to destruction

Many men straggling
With nothing in their lives
Passing by salvation
Slipping to the fire

Astray from birth
They're estranged from the womb
Feeding on evil
Flames shall be their tomb

If it's life you're seeking
Pray before you're reeking

Are we then all asleep
As those in the garden
Our neglect of souls
How it grieves the father

Wanting to be wrenched
From a well of sorrow
Jesus tore my leash
Him alone i follow
