

Ethereal Scourge "Refuge"

Visit "Refuge" on MotoLyrics.com

My life i lay it down
And bow before your throne
My life i give to you
By sacred blood i am your son
You're the fire that heats my veins
The power in my soul
By christ the serpent's bane
You are all the life i know
Be warm my heart of stone
Glowing by your hearth of grace
As my life is not my own
My darkened past you laid to waste

And my life is not my own
My corpse you sank without a trace

So let it be
Now and forever
Sovereign king
So let it be
i'm yours almighty lord
Send me where you may
I praise your mercy touch of love
Breathe and i will fly

And i will worship you
When the moon it bleeds and the sun is black
And i will worship you
When the earth breaks and the sky it cracks
All glorify your name
