(Stuart Moxham)

I was waiting at the station, when your train came in.
Wasn't you I was tiptoeing for ? But you gave me a grin Felt my heart in my throat, felt my soul going out to you.

Could this be love at first sight ? I just didn't know.
I just didn't know, oh, I just didn't know, oh.
I just didn't know, oh, I just didn't know, oh.

I was waiting at the station, when your train came in.
Wasn't you I was tiptoeing for ? But you gave me a grin
Felt my heart in my throat, felt my soul going out to you.

Could this be love at first sight ? I just didn't know.
I just didn't know, oh, I just didn't know, oh.
I just didn't know, oh, I just didn't know, oh.

Don't you feel insecure all about your love for me ?
There's nothing I adore, more than a fake ugly day.
Don't you feel insecure all about your love for me ?
There's nothing I adore, more than a fake ugly day.

I was waiting at the station, when your train came in.
Wasn't you I was tiptoeing for ? But you gave me a grin
Felt my heart in my throat, felt my soul going out to you.

Could this be love at first sight ? I just didn't know.
I just didn't know, oh, I just didn't know, oh.
I just didn't know, oh, I just didn't know, oh.
