Ohh Ohh
I'm so blue
'cause I'm worried over you I, I sometimes wonder why I never hear from you

You promised to write me each and everyday and I haven't heard from you since you went away

oohh oohh

I sit by my window pane hoping for a letter
one that never came

My heart cries for just one little line
anything to say you're mine

Oohh, oohh, oohh, oohh

I said a prayer
everynight, hoping hoping and praying someday, someday you'd write

oohh, oohh

My heart cries
for one little line

Anything to say you're mine...
