Huh, let me, let me tell you, babe
Like this
Hey there, sugar dumpling, let me tell you something
Hey boy, I've been wanting to say
You look so sweet and you're so doggone fine
I just can't get you out of my mind
You've become a sweet taste in my mouth, hon'
And I want you to be my spouse
So that we can live happily
In a big ole, ole roomy house
Just as long as you groove me, baby
Hey baby, baby, now make me feel good inside
Hey, now, now, now
Groove me, baby, groove me, baby, now
Hey there, sugar dumpling, let me tell you something
Hey boy, I've been wanting to say
And you look so sweet and you're so doggone fine
I just can't get you out of my mind
You've become a sweet taste in my mouth, yeah, yeah
And I want you to be my spouse
So that we can live happily
In a big ole, ole roomy house
Just as long as you groove me baby, yeah
Oh baby, now, now, make me feel good inside
Come on, now, now, now
Groove me, baby, groove me baby, yeah
Ugh
Good god
Good god almighty, now yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Hey there, sugar dumpling, let me tell you something
Hey girl, I've been wanting to say
You look so sweet baby, you're so doggone fine
I just can't get you out of my mind
You've become a sweet taste in my mouth
And yeah, you want me to be your spouse
So that we can live happily, oh baby
In a great, great big ole roomy house
Just as long as you keep grooving me baby
Oh yeah, yeah, girl, make me feel good inside
Hey, hey now
Groove me, baby
Hey, yeah, groove me, groove me, baby, baby

Na, na, na, na, na, groove me, groove me, baby
Hey, hey, hey, yeah, ey, yeah, groove me baby yeah
Good god almighty now, yeah, yeah
Groove me baby, oh, groove me baby, yeah
Ooh baby ready, now, now, now, hey now
Groove me, baby, groove me, baby, yeah
Oh, yeah, hey, hey, hey
Ay hey, hey, hey, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
You've got to groove me, yeah, yeah
You've got to, got to, got to groove me, baby
You've got to, you've got to, got to, got to
Groove me, baby
Got to, good god almighty
You've got to, you've got to, got to go to
You've got to, you've got to
