Moving farther than I ever thought I would be capable
to start again.
Now I'm gripping on to prospects of a silver lining in the end.

Goodbye never seemed so easy until now.
We can't collide when we step our separate ways.
I'll always remember our try.
Failure tastes so sweet.

Moving farther than I ever thought I would be capable
to start again.

Now I'm gripping on to prospects of a silver lining in the end.

Goodbye never seemed so easy until now.
We can't collide when we step our separate ways.
What could I do?
They left me before I left you.

I'm moving on, we'll just surpass you.
I'm moving on, I've never been happier.
