this seem different than they were before i notice my addiction to this steady intake and i'm wanting more it's multiplying god, you're such a heart attack give me chills and if i'm patient will i fet my fill? sink into black sheets don't speak baby
just want you here against me it's so infectious
this feeling spreads and leaves me weak (i'm blinded by it)
you are the only cure that i could need breathe it in it's building

hush now quiet down these thoughts don't get too far ahead of yourself it's just so fresh in your mind this sweet taste, contagious intriguing my constant craving
it's building
(i'm blinded by it)
