Let me start with I've let you go (Let you go)
But, you don't get it, though
(Don't get it, though. You don't get it, though)
Politely, I asked you to leave
But, still you follow
(But, still, you follow. Yeah, you follow me)

It's hard when you're full of heart
When the house you built just falls apart
Keep the paint fresh. Keep the outside clean
Make sure they never see you wear that ring
Don't tell them a thing
They don't know you like me

You're the girl that cries
Water in the basement
Everybody stops, wait, look to see
You're the girl that could've lied to a face
And fabricate a flood to get through to me

I went away and you found a replacement
So call him. Don't call me
To the girl that cries
Water in the basement
You drama everything
(Drama, drama)

I heard a good friend once say
"You got one life. Live it 'cause they'll take it away from all of us
One day, you know they will"

So, color it up. Color it up
Say your last goodbye. I don't give a fuck
Bottoms up. Just watch me walk away

I'm here to say that I don't need your sorry dreaming
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
What makes you think you can tell me how to feel or how hard I should fall
(No, no, no, no, no, no, no. Now you listen)

Alright, you're not anything I need in my life
No, you're not anything I even want
'Cause, they don't know you like me

You're the girl that cries
Water in the basement
Everybody stops, wait, look to see
You're the girl that could've lied to a face
And fabricate a flood to get through to me

I went away and you found a replacement
So call him. Don't call me
To the girl that cries
Water in the basement
You drama everything
(Drama, drama)

(Oh. Here's what you got to do)
Hold your head high
Shoot first, man. Don't ask why
Yeah, you won't feel the pain at all

Well, I guess I grew this mind
I think for myself and I'm fine
No, I don't need anything from you at all
They don't know you like me

You're the girl that cries
Water in the basement
Everybody stops, wait, look to see
You're the girl that could've lied to a face
And fabricate a flood to get through to me

I went away and you found a replacement
So call him. Don't call me
To the girl that cries
Water in the basement
You drama everything

Fabricate a flood to get through to me
So call him. Don't call me
You drama everything
Drama. So much drama
