I tried and tried i tried so many things that wouldn't take like stop the leak prevent the flood some say but nothing helped at all and you're not listening to what i say you waste the time for memories made communication has not made its way to your agenda for today or any other day cause this is the last time i'm gonna say it if you come 'round here you know we're gonna have some problems though cause yeah we're overâ€¦get over it thoughâ€¦ i've seen that look before leave that shit at your door

cause yeah we're overâ€¦get over it thoughâ€¦

now i'm shouting out you gotta hear me
can you end this now i'm tired of waiting you don't get the point and you don't get control and we both have a chance if you just let go

you can't have me tonight, tomorrow night the next day, for anyone, or anything and anyway i'm not asking you to stay you're not my fucking problem one you just throw away let's burn this house we built up down and simply walk away

cause yeah we're overâ€¦|yes we're overâ€¦| i'm gonna win this conversation look who's got the microphone, huh? i can't believe you're stuck on always trying to fuck me up i think you ruined us all yeah i truly believe you fuckin' ruined us all...YEAH!

cause yeah we're overâ€¦|yes we're overâ€¦|

(i was wondering why i wasn't sad like usual) (i'm not sad no more)
(you're just a mindfuck) (but hey you got your facebook) (so join the real world)

...just get her paid
