I smoke a cigarette while waiting in your bath

And I wait for you for an hour and a half

And I look out the window where the clouds fall down in rain

And I look across the river where they dance the night
away

I smoke a cigarette while waiting in your bath

And I wait for you for an hour and a half

And I look out the window where the sky falls down in
rain

And I look across the river where they dance the night

Dance the night away

Dance the night away without me

Dance the night away

Dance the night away

I smoke a cigarette while I wait in your bath

And I wait alone for you an hour and a half

And I look out the window where the sky falls down in
rain

And I look across the river where they dance the night

Dance the night away

Dance the night away without me

Dance the night away

Dance the night away

Dance the night away, yeah

Dance the night away
