Bleached by the sun and scorched by the moon
If I make it 'til tomorrow noon, I'm leaving
'Tween the horror of space and the terror of time
My heart in crystal down the line, I'm screaming

What I need is a kiss from you babe
Before it's hangover time
What I need is some love from you babe
Before this stampede arrives

Desolate landscape, storybook bliss
My darlin', let me tell you this, it's crazy
Hell of a memory is a heaven of pain
Snow is cold but so is rain please save me

What I need is a kiss from you babe
Before it's hangover time
What I need is some love from you babe
Before this stampede arrives

(Oh babe)
What I need kiss from you babe
(Before it's hangover time, yeah)
What I need love from you babe
(Before this stampede arrives)

(Babe)
What I need death valley nights
(Babe)
What I need death valley nights
(Babe, babe)
What I need, death valley nights
(I need you before I lose my mind)

I need you
What I need death valley nights
What I need death valley nights
(To run away, get away)
What I need death valley nights
(Outer space, just run away)

What I need death valley nights

(I need you)
What I need death valley nights
(I need you)
What I need death valley nights
(I need you)
